This letter will serve to advise the IEEE 802.11 Working Group of Intersil's IP statement relating to its proposal for Task Group E. Intersil's IP statement herein supercedes any previous IP statement(s) relating to Intersil's proposal for Task Group E:

Intersil IP Statement for TGe

Intersil will, upon written request of any company (the "requester"), grant it a personal, non-exclusive license on reasonable and non-discriminatory terms (which may include Intersil's then current royalty rates and other terms) for only that portion of any product that is fully compliant with the IEEE 802.11e standard, under any existing, pending, and future patents of Intersil that would necessarily be directly infringed by the manufacture, sale, offer for sale, importation and use of the product solely because it is fully compliant with the IEEE 802.11e standard, provided that a similar license under the requester's patents is made available to Intersil and other licensees of such Intersil patents.

Further, if Intersil's proposed contributions to the IEEE 802.11e standard are adopted, as proposed (excepting minor modifications), Intersil will, upon written request of any company (the "requester"), grant it a personal, non-exclusive, royalty-free license for only that portion of any product which is fully compliant with the IEEE 802.11e standard, under any existing, pending, and future patents of Intersil that would necessarily be directly infringed by the manufacture, sale, offer for sale, importation, and use of such product solely because it is fully compliant with the IEEE 802.11e standard, provided that a similar royalty-free license under the requester's patents is made available to Intersil and other licensees of such Intersil patents. Notwithstanding any herein, said royalty-free license shall terminate should the licensee assert any intellectual property claims against Intersil.

If you have any questions, please contact Intersil's Chief IP Counsel, Paul Bernkopf (ph: 321-729-4715, email: pbernkopf@intersil.com).

Best regards,
