Who has access to the Database?

- IEEE-SA Staff
 - IEEE-SA Working Group and Sponsor Officers*
 - IEEE-SA Board Members (NesCOM, RevCom, SASB, etc.)
 - Standards Project Technical Editors (New Role)
- * For the purposes of system access, Working Group and Sponsor Officers are defined as individuals with the following roles designated in myProject (Sponsor or Working Group Chair, Standards Representative, Co-Chair, Vice-Chair, Secretary, Treasurer, Other Officer)

How to Gain Access as a Technical Editor

1. Make sure you have created an IEEE Account and successfully logged into myProject™.
<https://development.standards.ieee.org>
2. Once logged into myProject™, go to “Manage Activity Profile” and mark interest in the project you are working on.
3. Contact your Working Group Chair so he/she may add you as a technical editor.

Additional information on registering interest can be found in the myProject™ User Guide Sec 3.1

How to grant access to a Technical Editor

Instructions for Working Group Officers

1. Make sure that the editor has registered interest in the project
2. Go to the myProject™ “Manage Committees” screen and select “manage” next to the appropriate project.
3. Click “Manage Officer Roster” and enter the email/username of the editor.

You may assign up to three technical editors per project.

Additional information on adding project roles can be found in the myProject™ User Guide Sec 4.9
